Miranda leading a meditation class in Bali

BALI, 2024

ABOUT MIRANDA

A practice built on presence

I'm Miranda — a certified yoga and Pilates instructor with over a decade of teaching experience across four continents. My retreats are small, intentional, and deeply personal.

I believe transformation happens not through intensity, but through consistency, breath, and genuine care. Every retreat I lead is designed to meet you exactly where you are.

Whether you're returning to movement after a long pause, or deepening an existing practice, you'll leave with more than you arrived with.

TRAINING & CREDENTIALS

A decade of dedicated study

Every qualification I hold is one I sought because it would make me a better teacher — not to collect letters after my name.

★★★★★

The Tuscany retreat completely shifted something in me. Miranda holds the space with such warmth and intelligence. I've done many retreats, but this was different. I came home lighter.

I came to Bali exhausted and left genuinely restored. The Pilates sessions were perfectly sequenced, the food was incredible, and Miranda's teaching style is unlike anyone I've practised with.
